La Habra Police Department Press Release

Commercial Burglary Suspects in Custody

La Habra, CA – January 17, 2017: At approximately 1:00 a.m., officers were dispatched to Moto United, located at 321 E. Imperial Hwy., regarding a commercial burglary in progress. A witness observed subjects putting motorcycles into the back of a U-Haul truck and called the La Habra Police Department to report what he saw. Prior to officers arriving at the location, the U-Haul truck, along with a 2007 gold Buick La Cross, fled the location. The witness followed the suspects until police were able to attempt a traffic stop.

The driver of the U-Haul failed to stop and a pursuit ensued. Officers followed the vehicle into Los Angeles County, including driving on a portion of the 105 freeway. The vehicle finally stopped in the area of the 2200 block of Croeus Ave. in the City of Los Angeles. After doing so, two subjects fled on foot. The driver, later identified as Dajohn Alexander, 18 years old, (DOB 8/8/98), of Los Angeles, was apprehended a short distance away, however, the passenger remains at large.

The 2007 gold Buick La Cross was stopped by La Habra police officers in the area of La Mirada Blvd. and Leffingwell Rd. in Whittier. The driver, later identified as Tyron Jennings, 18 years old, (DOB 12/11/98), of Los Angeles and a 17 year old male, were taken into custody at this traffic stop.
