

Bordered by 4 major arterial highways, La Habra has much to offer in the area of business development and is posed to continue its economic growth success well into the future. The city provides a wide variety of programs, opportunities and partnerships to foster growth in existing businesses and to assist new businesses with locating to La Habra.

An aerial photograph of the new La Habra City Hall building, a large, light-colored structure with a prominent central tower and a red-tiled roof. The building is surrounded by a parking lot and a street with some traffic. The image is framed by a dark blue banner at the top and a dark red banner at the bottom, both containing white text.

BRAND NEW CITY HALL

OPENING SOON

La Habra City Hall has relocated across the street, directly across La Habra Boulevard from the La Habra Police Department. Click here to see photos of the progression of our new City Hall.

On November 27, 2016, the City of La Habra hosted their annual Tamale Festival. There was an estimated amount of 7,500 attendees throughout the day.

Northgate Market will be relocating from La Habra Boulevard to Whittier Boulevard. The center will also attract other tenants such as Yogurtland and Tierra Mia Coffee.

Starting Wednesday, January 11, 2017, we will be hosting SCORE workshops at Community Services. Learn how to make your business grow, E-Mail marketing and social media, or understand financial statements. Click here for more information.

Fairfield Residential is expected to open 335 luxury apartment units in Spring 2017. Click here for project details.

Xceligent, Inc. is a leading provider of verified commercial real estate information across the United States. This information assists real estate professionals, appraisers, owners, investors, banks, and developers that make decisions to lease, sell and develop commercial properties. Click here to look for available properties.

Follow up on your deal making efforts at Los Angeles' ICSC Conference. Stop by La Habra's booth!